

Facilities at Department of Commerce

Library

The Department of Commerce has a spacious library which has a collection of around 21,999 books, Journals, Newspapers, Magazines, Project Reports, Theses and Dissertations. It has area to accommodate 100 students.

Computer Laboratory and Internet Facility

The Department of Commerce provides its students with a well-equipped Computer laboratory with 47 terminals. Students are also provided high speed advanced Wi-Fi connection that is active for 24 hours. The students have uninterrupted access to internet connectivity throughout the campus.

Seminar Hall

The Department of Commerce has a separate Seminar Hall for conduct of various programmes and activities.

Commerce Lab

The Department of Commerce has Commerce Lab. The lab is a result of different activities conducted by students during their academic program in the form of presentation, business models, posters and other activities. The Lab is a result of the activities brainstormed by students.